BANGALORE CENSUS.

The 7th December 1880.

The President, Municipal Commission for the Cantonment and Town of Bangalore, notifies for general information that the General Census of the population of the Cantonment and Town of Bangalore, ordered by the Government of India, will be taken on the night of the 17th February 1881.

By Section 221 of the Bangalore Municipal Regulations it is ordered that any person wilfully neglecting or refusing correctly to fill up and affix his signature or mark to any such schedule or return so left at his place of residence, or who shall neglect or refuse to return the same to the Enumerator or other officer when called upon so to do, or to furnish the necessary information to an Enumerator to fill up the same for him if he do not know how to write, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees and may also be detained in custody until he shall have correctly filled up and signed, or affixed his mark to the said schedule or return: Provided that it shall be the duty of the Enumerator, if required, to fillup all schedules or returns for those who are unable to write. Section 222 inflicts a further fine not exceeding rupees one hundred on any person who does not properly amend his return, if required by the Enumerator.

The President relies upon the cordial co-operation of the inhabitants of the Cantonment and Town of Bangalore to ensure that the Census shall be really accurate.
